Members of District Committee to Confront Landlords With New Contracts.

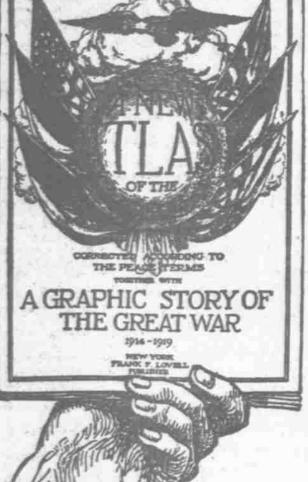

While Congressmen are denouncing rent profiteering in the District of Co-lumbia, the Senate District subcommittee that is investigating Washington's bill of complaint against the general high cost of living set about today to dig up facts about the rent situation for use in framing anti-profiteering legislation. The entire week, if necessary, is to be devoted to witnesses with regard to the reating of apartments and houses particularly. Thirty witnesses have been called and more are expucted to follow.

Real estate men will be subpoensed to appear. Owners of houses and conants. Real estate men and house owners will be confronted with written contracts which have been forced upon tenants under threat of expulsion from their homes after the Baulsbury anti-eviction act expires.

SLAYER NEARING GALLOWS. MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va., Aug. 25. Ernesto Lemmon, of McDowell county, is for the second time within a month nearing the gallows. Granted a respite of thirty days that his counsel might carry the case to a higher court or present claims for a new trial, Lemmon was removed from the death cell, but unless action is taken speed by he will hang next Opposition Grows in House ernor Cornwell is not expected.

We' Are Patriotic, Says Witness; Wife Ate Bran Bread All During War

Thomas Dunn, a meat jobber of St. Louis, who appeared in opposition to the bills to regulate the packers, declared that there is no profiteering in this country now.

Dunn said "the average man likes high prices," and that is why they exist today.

"Then you think the people are satisfied, do you?" inquired Senator Kenyon of Iowa. "Well, if they aren't they ought to be," Dunn replied, "You know you have got to educate the people. These investigations won't do any good. You know you woh't do anything after you get through with all of these hear-

Ben M. Anderson, of Columbia, Mo., representing a number of Missouri shippers, also appeared to oppose the proposed bills.

"We are patriotic people out our way," Anderson said. "Why, all during the war we ate this bran bread-I didn't, but my wife to Continued Maintenance of Troops in Russia.

Opposition in the House to the coninued maintenance of American troops in Russia is crystallizing and may be voiced in an imperative demand on President Wilson that he issue instructions for the immediate withdrawal of these troops.

Vigorous protests against the American policy with respect to Russia and Russian affairs came this morning to the House Foreign Affairs Committee when was read the statement of the State Department of August 5, 1918, that Great Britain and France were co-operating with the United States in Siberia and the recent announcement by the War Department that the United States now has 8,500 troops in Siberia and that Great Britain and France have no soldiers in that coun-

Congressmen Rhodes of Missouri and Mason of Illinois, Republicans, appeared before the committee with citizen delegations from their respective States to ask why American so: diers were being kept in Siberia and for how long, the number of Japanese and Italian soldiers now in that country, and why Great Britain and France have no soldiers there, and what is the policy of the Japanese government in connection with Si-

At recent hearings before Congressional committees Secretary Baker has declined to go into the question of this Government's Russian policy, but stated that under agreement with Great Britain and France this Government was pledged to assist in military operations by the allies in Si-

LAND PASSENGERS OF DISABLED SHIP

160 Transferred From St. Johns to Avalon in Chesapeake Bay.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 25.—Passengers on the steamer St. Johns, bound from Norfolk to Baltimore and disabled in the bay by the blowing out of a steampipe, arrived in Baltimore early today on the steamer Avalon, of the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic railway. The passengers were transferred to the Avalon in the bay off Cove Point.

The St. Johns was due to arrive last night at 8:30 o'clock, with 160 passen-gers from Norfolk. When the ship became disabled in the bay she signaled an incoming ocean liner and was towed. When the Avalon came alongside the passengers were transferred STRIKING ACTORS TO GIVE SHOW. CHICAGO, Aug. 25 .- Striking Chicago actors today announced they will revive "The Gentleman From Mississippi" for benefit tours in cities near Chicago. Performances also will be held here, it was said. Theaters here were still dark today. Relenting briefly, the Actors' Equity Association last night allowed managers some help in storing scenery.
